music carries on in a simple Border Song You once knew

And then, the rest of the song is strummed

E, B7, E then the rest of the song...

B7 E

People like you, they come and they go

B7 E

What's left to say we already know?

Asus2 E

And we've danced these shoes to pieces

Asus2 E

And we've stood where no-one has stood

B7

And the music carries on

E

In a simple Border Song you once knew

Asus2 E

And I guess I've seen it all

Asus2 E

And I guess I've seen it all

Asus2 E

You can climb but you will fall

Asus2 E

And I guess I've seen it all

And then just repeat Asus2 E till the end of the song wailing and repeating the guess I've seen it all bit

Not a lot different to the Warchild version then eh? Just Capoe up. Any comments (although none of the former Australian cricketer kind...) to ihateibiza@hotmail.com
