PICKING PATTERN:

Tom plays only this all the way through the verse:

```
          E          F#          B          (implied tone)
E-----
B-----
G----9----9----9----9----9----9----9----9-----
D---9----9----9----9----9----9----9-----
A-7----7----9----9-----
E-----7----7-----
```

```
E      F#      B
Coming back to the city
E      F#      B
That I never quite leave
E      F#      B
Picture you be the ocean
          E      F#      B
Picture me coughing into my sleeve
          E      F#      B
Like a snake eating snake you confuse me
          E      F#      B
Who's killer? Who's captive? Who's free?
          E      F#      B
In a city that kills by constriction
          E      F#      B
Throw your streets around me and squeeze
```

In the chorus it is slightly different with this added

```
E-----
B----9----9-
G---9----9---
D-----
A-0-----0----
E-----
```

```
          E      F#      B      A
And draw down the stars
E      F#      B      A
Draw down the stars
E      F#      B
What's in your heart?
```

And it's the same for the other verse
