Chords:

Am - x0221x

Em/B - x2200x

E - 02210x

C - x32010

INTRO:

Am Em/B x4

VERSE

Am Em/B
She comes to me in dreams, a train wreck beauty queen

Am Em/B
But I don't remember her

Am Em/B
On a wall of white and blue I wrote my name and thought of you

Am Em/B
But you would not have known

Am Em/B
Through the window of a car, a cigarette, a fallen star

Am Em/B
A dream within a trail of sparks

Am Em/B
And conversation turns to sleep, I wait for you to speak

Am E
I'm waiting still

CHORUS

Am C Em/B
This is for the restless, not the peaceful sleepers, this song's for you

Am C Em/B
And for the faithless, not the true believers, this song's for you

And then the Verse and the Chorus are repeated... with different lyrics obviously.
Then...

Am Em/B
She comes to me in dreams, a train wreck beauty queen

Am Em/B
Now I remember her

Am Em/B
And everything your love will break you're running out of things to make you

E
Feel alive, alive, alive, alive

Then it's the Chorus progression over and over again with a bit of singing until the end... work out the timing your good self. End on Am.

Any banter (though please none of the "I've got a long shot to play in this snooker
game and I haven't got one of those things to make the shot bridgeable" sort) to
