Right, this tune is confusing. I can't really tell EXACTLY the chords Tom is playing on guitar or keyboard since he's got them going through too much crazy shit. So I'll just give the names with no notation, so you can tinker with them as you please.

Intro

Em Bm7 x2

Verse

Em I confess, I confess I was wrong Bm7
Em Tasted blood, tasted blood and was gone Bm7

and the same for this:

Suddenly, suddenly you were warned
Shooting stars in flight from the dawn

I'm the breath on your face
You think that you're safe
I am watching you
I'm the voice that you hear
When no-one is near
I am watching you

Cos you're in the line, in the line of fire
Cos you're in the line, in the line of fire

Southern skies. southern skies shrink my world
This should end, but I can't let you go

I'm the breath on your face
You think that you're safe
I am watching you
I'm the voice that you hear
When no-one is near
I am watching you

Then...

Em Cos you're in the line, in the line of fire Bm7

Em Cos you're in the line, in the line of fire G

D Faded away, you have faded away, you watch and you still don't know G

D And I've fallen alone you can't feel it alone, you know you can't say D Em

G
You can't say

And the rest of the song is just repetitions of what's gone on before, with different lyrics.

Listen to the record and fiddle it as you wish!
