

Still Lost

By Tom McRae

Right, to be quite honest there should be no tab for this because it's a plinky piano number and there's no geetar on it... Therefore I've just put the chord voicings in and am letting you make up your own mind how to arrange it.

Yeah, he deviates round the chords and such but because it's on piano it's really hard to write them all down.

So, my love, I left this world for a while, for a while

C F

I float through strange days, search the one way to

C
Bring me back to you

Am G
So don't let me go, don't let me go

Am G
Don't let me go from here

F C F C F C
'Cos I'll be still lost, I'll be still lost, I'll be still lost

Am F C
When you come, when will you come to look for me?

F C
And if I was to call you, would you come?

F C
And if I was to call you, would you come?

Am F C
Oh, my love, when will you come to look for me?

F C F C F C
'Cos I'll be still lost, I'll be still lost, I'll be still lost

Am F C
When you come, why don't you come to look for me?

Yeah not the best I'm afraid but when there's no guitar on it, what's a man to do... Any banter (though no women drivers please) to ihateibiza@hotmail.com
