Intro: C C/G F

Verse 1:

C
Baby, I went back to funeral row

C kicking through the old streets

C/G F C
of a place I once called home, not long ago

C
Searching for an omen, looking for a sign

C/G F
looking for a place I swore an oath of love undying

of love undying

Pre-chorus:

Am
But I'm tired of this dull ache

F
this endless and fake parade

Am F
I'm gonna torch my name and my trade

Chorus:

C
Run into the bright lights

F
run into the bright lights

Verse 2:

Brother don't go back to funeral row the streets have fallen silent and the cross no longer glows on funeral row

Pre-chorus:

And I'm tired of this dark place where hope dies and hope fades
I'm gonna leave these shadows behind

Chorus:

Head into the bright lights
head into the bright lights

So come on Red get your guitar feed the flames and feed the fire wishing things won't make them so and the truth is I refuse to go Cos the shadow's where the best things hide you can keep the brightest light
you can keep the brightest light
you can keep the blinding light
